BRIEF SUMMARY

so basically I am a fresher in computer application jobs. I am not having industrial leading experience in the field of computer applications but I have worked on many projects in my graduation as well as in my post graduation so I can proudly say that yes I am confident in making projects.
i generally ask my self what i am ,so i found out that yes i am a skill collector. thats why i choose BCA and MCA as these courses helps up making a skill and provide me very edge of technical knowledge.
